

House Resolution No. 59

Whereas, Terry McDonald of Carthage, Missouri, has been chosen to receive the Carthage Chamber of Commerce's Richard M. Webster Citizen of the Year award, an impressive accolade which honors the memory of the late Senator from Carthage who served in the Missouri Senate from 1962 until his death in March of 1990; and

Whereas, Terry McDonald was most deservedly selected for this honor, which he will receive during the Carthage Chamber of Commerce Banquet on January 18, 2002, in recognition of his exemplary community service and leadership in Carthage; and

Whereas, while serving as Manager, District Manager, and Area Supervisor of Sirloin Stockade, Terry McDonald had the opportunity to purchase the Carthage location; and

Whereas, Terry McDonald and his wife, Billie, became owners of the Carthage Sirloin Stockade in 1987, since which time they have made the charming town of Carthage their home; and

Whereas, active in his community, Terry McDonald has served on various boards and committees including that of Chairman of the Carthage Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, Terry McDonald, a graduate of Salem High School, is also known, admired, and respected for serving his country during the Vietnam War as a member of the United States Army; and

Whereas, God has blessed Terry and Billie McDonald with the love of a wonderful family whose members include two children, Alison, who lives with her husband in Kentucky, and Mitch, who is in his senior year at Carthage High School:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join the Carthage Chamber of Commerce in expressing our most sincere appreciation to Terry McDonald for his unparalleled gifts of time and talent to others and in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Terry McDonald, as a measure of our esteem for him.
