

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives have tremendous esteem for Show-Me State business leaders who have admirably contributed to the economic vitality of their local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Brian Krieger enjoys an outstanding business background which has led to his co-ownership with Vito Chirco and Sal Alu of a chain of restaurants bearing his name in St. Louis, St. Charles and Jefferson Counties area, and now, Brian, with his wife Leslie, is owner of a new enterprise in Chesterfield; and

Whereas, creators of Krieger Pub and Grill in 1991, Brian and Leslie Krieger and his partners have expanded the range of their endeavors to include eight restaurant locations in the metropolitan St. Louis region, including such diverse locales as Maryland Heights, Twin Oaks, Warson Woods, O'Fallon, and Arnold; and

Whereas, on Monday, February 4, 2002, Brian and Leslie Krieger will open their new restaurant enterprise, Burger City, in Chesterfield, Missouri; and

Whereas, Brian and Leslie Krieger are quite pleased to be known now as tremendous assets to yet another Missouri community through the grand opening of Burger City; and

Whereas, Brian and Leslie Krieger have used their astute business sense and impressive culinary success to provide a warm and inviting home environment and a bright future for the Krieger children; and

Whereas, Brian and Leslie Krieger epitomize the type of business men and women needed by this state to enhance economic prosperity, diversify financial foundations, and raise the quality of living for every member of society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the entrepreneurial spirit and practices of Brian and Leslie Krieger and to convey to them this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon the opening of their new eatery, Burger City, and our best wishes for many more years of continued success in all of their endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution to acknowledge the grand opening of Burger City in Chesterfield, Missouri.
