

House Resolution No. 167

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious achievements of one of the Show-Me State's most outstanding high school bands; and

Whereas, the Carl Junction High School Band from Carl Junction High School in Carl Junction, Missouri, is to be commended for its noteworthy accomplishments during the 2001-2002 school year; and

Whereas, the Carl Junction High School Band was a proud participant in the Neewollah Marching Festival Parade Competition, Field Show Competition, and Auxiliary Competition, where it earned an impressive one rating; and

Whereas, some of the Band's other highlights include appearances at the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Music Festival and the Cotton Bowl Parade Competition where they took Fifth Place with a Silver Award and earned "Best Auxiliary" selection over all divisions; and

Whereas, the members of the Carl Junction High School Band could not have attained such phenomenal success this year without the unparalleled leadership provided by Band Director Jennifer L. Sager, who has continually instilled within her talented students the desire to realize their full potential; and

Whereas, the residents of Carl Junction justifiably take great pride in the success of the Carl Junction High School Band, the members of which have brought honor and glory to the community on a number of occasions; and

Whereas, fellow students, faculty, and staff at Carl Junction High School, parents, and the entire community of Carl Junction are exceedingly proud of the members of the Carl Junction High School Band for their unwavering unanimity while successfully aspiring towards incredible goals:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Band Director Jennifer L. Sager and to all members of the Carl Junction High School Band at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing them only the very best of success in all their future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Carl Junction High School.
