

House Resolution No. 166

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem the practice of athletic competitive performance which has a significantly positive effect upon Show-Me State sports participants whose willingness to train, test, and persevere will assist them in the many avenues and challenges they will face in life; and

Whereas, SportsCity of Blue Springs, Missouri, is designed to be a 75,000 square-foot indoor sports and family fun center; and

Whereas, opening in April 2002, SportsCity will host sports leagues in soccer, football, basketball, volleyball, and baseball; and

Whereas, in addition to competitive team play, SportsCity will provide state-of-the-art sports training services targeting the various sports offered at the indoor facility; and

Whereas, SportsCity will also offer educational programs in health, well-being, and fitness; and

Whereas, SportsCity will ensure that it garners the widest possible interest from the Blue Springs community through the availability of a large laser tag gaming area and an arcade room; and

Whereas, headed by Warren Westcoat, SportsCity Director of Fun, the newly constructed SportsCity facility will open its doors to the public for the first time in late April 2002 when it will become a welcome addition to the area's family-oriented recreational venues:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the significant community and neighborhood sports opportunities slated to be available at the April 2002 opening of SportsCity and to convey this legislative body's heartiest congratulations to all of those individuals who have had a part in the planning and development of the many individual and group educational, competitive, and training outlets at the indoor complex and our best wishes for tremendous success now and well into the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the grand opening of SportsCity in Blue Springs, Missouri.
