

House Resolution No. 492

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge the exceptional accomplishments of Show-Me State residents who admirably established and maintained a stellar reputation for excellence and selfless service throughout their long and illustrious lives; and

Whereas, George Andrew Siegismund was known as a sturdy bulwark of the St. Clair County Republican Committee which he supported for many years until his death on February 18, 2002, at the age of seventy-one; and

Whereas, George Siegismund joyfully spent his entire life in the Rockville, Missouri, area except for the years from 1952 to 1954 when he served as a Corporal clerk typist in the United States Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, California, and Camp Lejeune, North Carolina; and

Whereas, born on Christmas day, 1930, in Rockville, George Siegismund raised cattle, farmed, repaired all manner of items, constructed objects of beauty in his wood shop, and devoted much of his time and energy to the Republican Central Committee; and

Whereas, George Siegismund was justifiably proud to be known as the loving husband of Margie Lou Kern Siegismund, the beloved father of Darrel and Sandra Siegismund, Cindy and Marlon Seider, Tammy and Mike Rapp, Craig and Debbie Siegismund, and Julie and Kurt Davis; and the grandfather of Anthony, April and Andrew Siegismund, Heather and Jayson Davis, Valerie, Shelley, and Marriah Seider, Tyler and Ashleigh Rapp, Brooklyn, Rebecca, and George Siegismund, and Trevor, Lyndsi, and Kennon Davis; and

Whereas, the late George Siegismund is also survived by his siblings, Georgia and Raymond Williams, Sara Hearting, Dorothy and Howard Heiserman, Emma Cassity, and Aaron and Mabel Siegismund, and a wide group of true friends:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to commend the lifelong political contributions of the late George Siegismund and to convey to all of his family members, friends, and colleagues this legislative body's sincerest appreciation of his longstanding support of the goals and aspirations of the St. Clair County Republican Committee; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution to recognize posthumously the achievements of the late George Andrew Siegismund.

Offered by _____ Representative Delbert L. Scott
District No. 119

I, Jim Kreider, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 492, adopted February 27, 2002.

Jim Kreider, Speaker