

House Resolution No. 520

Whereas, it is with great pleasure and tremendous pride that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives acknowledge the stellar attainments of Show-Me State high school athletic teams which have established new levels of performance during the competitive season; and

Whereas, the 2001-2002 Carthage High School Lady Tiger basketball team capped an already exceptional season by rising to the level of Conference Champions for the first time ever in the school's history; and

Whereas, earning the Southwest Conference Title by an overtime 53-46 win against McDonald County, the Lady Tigers extended their conference win-loss record to 7-1 to share the top billing with arch rival Webb City; and

Whereas, the Friday, February 15, 2002, victory over McDonald County brought the regular season to a festive close for the Lady Tigers whose hard work, diligence, drive, and determination garnered a very respectable 21-5 overall record; and

Whereas, admirably trained by Varsity Coach Bobby Waggoner and Assistant Coach Cheryle Martin, the 2001-2002 Lady Tigers include seniors Rachel Staples, Sara Ingram, Helena Hill, Casey Porter, and Trisha Baugh; juniors Kayla Shipman, Tara Waggoner, Kristan Lee, Candace Artym, Annie Ingram, and Katie Wooldridge; and freshmen Aspen Roughton and Katie Burger; and

Whereas, the loss of five seniors to graduation will not dampen the enthusiasm of the 2002-2003 Lady Tigers team which looks forward to building upon the successes of the past in the hope and anticipation of continued glory in the future:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar season completed by the Lady Tiger basketball team members and to convey this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon their well-deserved capture of the school's first-ever conference title and our best wishes for continued academic and athletic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the 2001-2002 Carthage High School Lady Tigers basketball team.
