

House Resolution No. 567

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are fully aware of the major role which the Boy Scouts of America organization plays in the lives of the future young leaders of this great state and nation; and

Whereas, Charles Thomas Perry of Kansas City, Missouri, will receive the coveted Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony on March 10, 2002, at Platte Woods United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, for his Eagle Project, Charles chose to make repairs to the baseball field at Prairie Point Elementary School by over-seeding the outfield, clearing out construction debris and old dirt from the infield, replacing it with new dirt, and planting trees around the playground; and

Whereas, the son of Tim and Judith Perry, and the brother of Sarah and Claire, Charles has learned to accept significant responsibility as a result of the challenges he met while serving faithfully and efficiently in the positions of Patrol Leader, Assistant Patrol Leader, Librarian, Troop Guide, and Instructor; and

Whereas, during his years as a Boy Scout, Charles has compiled an impressive list of achievement that includes earning the Arrow of Light, the required number of merit badges, Ordeal membership in the Order of the Arrow, and the status of Foxman in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say; attending H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation for four years; and camping out at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; and

Whereas, a member of Troop 314, Charles has enhanced a proud family Scouting tradition characterized by the success of his father, Tim Perry; his uncles, Tom L. Perry and Kelly Lager; and nine paternal cousins, all of whom followed the trail to Eagle; and

Whereas, Charles is a member of St. Therese Catholic Church and an eighth grade student at Congress Middle School, where he is admired for playing soccer and participating in intramurals:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in applauding Charles Perry at this significant milestone in his life and in wishing him only the best in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Charles Thomas Perry, as a measure of our esteem for him.
