

House Resolution No. 699

Whereas, the National Association of Purchasing Management-St. Louis, an affiliate of the Institute for Supply Management, joins other Supply Management Associations worldwide to recognize March 2002 as Supply Management Month; and

Whereas, the NAPM-St. Louis is a not-for-profit group representing nearly 500 supply management professionals in manufacturing, government, educational, institutional, and service organizations in the Greater St. Louis area; and

Whereas, these Supply Management professionals make important contributions to the quality, efficiency, and profitability of small and large businesses in the public and private sector in the local area, the State of Missouri, and across the United States; and

Whereas, this special month recognizes the unique role supply management professionals play in helping to build better business and government in the Greater St. Louis area, in Missouri, throughout the United States, and around the world; and

Whereas, NAPM-St. Louis will celebrate Supply Management month by observing Executive Night at its regular March 2002 general membership Meeting, an event which will play special tribute to those executive managers who oversee the purchasing and supply management function in their organizations; and

Whereas, Karen Adrignola provides outstanding leadership as Executive Director of NAPM-St. Louis, in which capacity she does her utmost to assist Purchasing/Supply Management persons desiring to improve their professional skills:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in recognizing March 2002 as Supply Management Month with best wishes to all Supply Management professionals for continued success as they strive to realize even greater achievement in the years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation in honor of Supply Management Month.
