

House Resolution No. 922

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State employees who have admirably dedicated themselves to assisting state government in meeting the public mandate for efficient and effective services; and

Whereas, Charles F. (Fred) Case will receive well-deserved honors and accolades on Friday, March 22, 2002, at the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations Employment Security Building in Jefferson City, Missouri, when he is publicly feted as Employee of the Year 2001; and

Whereas, initially named Department of Labor and Industrial Relations Employee of the Month for August 2001, Fred Case subsequently was selected State Employee of the Month for November 2001; and

Whereas, actively involved in the MYLF Conference and the lives of its handicapped participants, Fred Case has developed and maintained an exemplary record of interaction with two young citizens in particular, Amanda Dovin of St. Charles and Jamie Stober of Sedalia; and

Whereas, turning fifty years of age on April 29, 2002, Fred Case has been married for thirty years to his beloved wife, Rhonda, a blessed union which produced two wonderful daughters, Amanda and Melissa, and a delightful granddaughter, Shelby; and

Whereas, Fred Case is a graduate of Columbia College who earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration with minors in accounting, marketing, and management in 1992 with a 3.9 grade point average; and

Whereas, in addition to his work for the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Fred Case has been conscientiously involved with Hopewell Baptist Church and the New Bloomfield City Council:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Fred Case as Employee of the Year by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for many more years of personal and professional success to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Charles F. (Fred) Case, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations Employee of the Year 2001.
