

House Resolution No. 930

Whereas, the Missouri House of Representatives is fully cognizant of the important role which the Boy Scouts of America organization plays in offering a well-rounded program of activities designed to prepare young men for the many diverse challenges of responsible citizenship; and

Whereas, Jeffrey B. Adams of Kansas City, Missouri, has been privileged to participate in such activities as a loyal, diligent, and industrious member of Troop 426, which will bestow upon him the rank of Eagle Scout during appropriate ceremonies on April 6, 2002, at Broadview Christian Church; and

Whereas, Jeffrey culminated eleven years of Scouting endeavor with the successful completion of his required Eagle project that took him many hours to plan, organize, and carry out for the overall benefit of others by painting the gazebo at the Little Sisters of the Poor; and

Whereas, the son of Jim and Carol Adams, Jeffrey always took the time and continually put forth the energy to perform his duties in the most efficient and effective manner possible and truly excelled while assuming responsibility as Quartermaster, Scribe, Assistant Patrol Leader, and Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, Jeffrey has ample reason to be exceedingly proud of his other impressive achievements which include earning thirty-four merit badges, the World Conservation Award, and the status of Warrior in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, where he had taken the name Little Watchful Night Owl; and

Whereas, it is only with the ability, commitment, and enthusiasm of such young Missourians as Jeffrey Adams that America can continue to maintain respect as the greatest nation in the world:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in conveying to Jeffrey Adams a message of appreciation for his determination to succeed in Scouts, in congratulating him as he attains the rank of Eagle, and in wishing him much fulfillment in pursuing new avenues of challenge in the years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Jeffrey B. Adams and for his parents.
