“But surely God is my helper, the Lord is the upholder of my life.” (Psalm 54:4)

Holy and Gracious God, we give You thanks that You are in our lives and a refuge when times are tense and we need help. We pray that You will watch over us and provide the support we need to serve Your people. And we pray that You will be with former House Chaplain, Father Behan, as he goes through cancer surgery tomorrow, guiding the hands of the surgeons and providing Your healing presence. And we continue to pray for Senator DePasco as he enters the next step in his treatment, that Your healing power may flow through his body that he might return to health and wholeness. In Your gracious Name we pray. Amen.
