New summary as follows:

This bill creates the crime of unlawful genetic engineering of a human. A person commits the crime of unlawful genetic engineering if he or she adds genes or genetic material from a non-human species to a human preembryo, embryo, or to a human sperm or ovum used to create a human preembryo or embryo; if he or she uses an ovum from a non-human species to create a human preembryo or embryo, or if he or she adds or deletes human genes or genetic material from a human preembryo or embryo, or a human sperm or ovum used to create a preembryo or embryo. The penalty for unlawful genetic engineering is a class B felony. A second or subsequent violation is a class A felony.
