

House Resolution No. 13

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives realize that the rank of Eagle Scout is a performance-based achievement, the proud standards of which have been well maintained for many years; and

Whereas, Bradley Stephen "Brad" Taylor will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on January 12, 2003; and

Whereas, Brad, a member of Boy Scout Troop 362, successfully fulfilled the requirements to receive Scouting's highest rank by completing his Eagle project which involved painting a hallway at Duncan Road Baptist Church; and

Whereas, during his ten years in Scouting, Brad mastered several challenging and diverse skills to earn the Arrow of Light, the required number of merit badges, and the status of Tom-Tom Beater in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say; and

Whereas, Brad demonstrated his capability and willingness to exert authority by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of various leadership positions; and

Whereas, Brad developed immense personal growth and fitness by participating in the many assorted activities the Boy Scouts offers, some of which include attending summer camp at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, taking part in Father Son Float Trips, and going on a Packard High Adventure trip to Colorado; and

Whereas, Brad is a senior at St. Mary's High School in Independence, Missouri, where he has also enjoyed recognition by participating in football, wrestling, and track; being a member of the Liturgy Committee and Choir; and serving as a Lector and Eucharistic Minister at St. Mary's parish and St. John LaLande parish:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Brad Taylor for the steadfast determination he displayed in his pursuit to attain the rank of Eagle and in wishing him only the best for his plans to study law and engineering at the University of Missouri; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Bradley Stephen Taylor.
