

House Resolution No. 102

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives realize that the rank of Eagle Scout is a performance-based achievement, the proud standards of which have been well maintained for many years; and

Whereas, Brooks P. Luebbering of New Bloomfield, Missouri, will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on February 9, 2003, at Fulton First Assembly of God Church in Fulton; and

Whereas, Brooks, a member of Boy Scout Troop 50 and Varsity Team 50, successfully fulfilled the requirements to receive Scouting's highest rank by completing his Eagle project which involved building two sidewalks at Fulton First Assembly of God Church; and

Whereas, during his twelve years in Scouting, Brooks mastered several challenging and diverse skills to earn the Arrow of Light, thirty-three merit badges, CPR certification, and membership in the Order of the Arrow; and

Whereas, Brooks demonstrated his capability and willingness to exert leadership by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of Bugler, Scribe, and Team Secretary; and

Whereas, the son of Dennis and Diana Luebbering of New Bloomfield and Tina Cook of California, Brooks developed immense personal growth and fitness by participating in the many assorted activities the Boy Scouts offers, some of which include completing Junior Leader Training, hiking Taum Sauk, and taking part in Project C.O.P.E.; and

Whereas, Brooks is a senior at South Callaway High School, where he has also enjoyed recognition as a member of Future Business Leaders of America and Fulton First Assembly of God Church, where he serves as a bass player for the Praise and Worship Team and as a Squire for the Royal Order of Chivalry-Westminster Household:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Brooks Luebbering for the steadfast determination he displayed in his pursuit to attain the rank of Eagle and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Brooks P. Luebbering.
