

House Resolution No. 229

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated themselves to fulfilling the highest standards of good citizenship in their local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Lyndall Fraker, manager of the Marshfield Wal-Mart, has distinguished himself as recipient of the 2002 Marshfieldian of the Year award given by the Marshfield Area Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, a member of the Marshfield Area Chamber of Commerce, Lyndall Fraker serves on the Marshfield Schools Foundation and the Marshfield City Park Board, is a member of Rotary Club, and volunteers to work on the Rotary Playground and in the kitchen during the Webster County Fair; and

Whereas, known for his selfless approach to all of life's challenges, Lyndall Fraker is proud to be a Marshfieldian and a "hometown, small town guy" who works for the largest retailer in the world; and

Whereas, Lyndall Fraker loves his community with all his heart and demonstrates his compassion for his fellow citizens by striving to improve the overall quality of life in Marshfield; and

Whereas, Lyndall Fraker received his well-deserved Marshfieldian of the Year award from Webster County Prosecuting Attorney and fellow Rotarian Cynthia Black at ceremonies conducted on Saturday, January 18, 2003:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Lyndall Fraker for the Marshfieldian of the Year award by the Marshfield Area Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Lyndall Fraker, manager of the Marshfield Wal-Mart.
