

House Resolution No. 893

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have risen to the top of their profession as exceptional teachers bringing honor and glory to themselves, their school districts, and to the state of Missouri; and

Whereas, Theresa Long has earned distinction for her instructional endeavors at the Rockwood R-VI School District in Eureka, Missouri; and

Whereas, Theresa Long is one of a trio of educators who are the first among all of their co-workers at Rockwood to have earned National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, an art teacher at Eureka High School, Theresa Long has served the students of the Rockwood School District for fourteen of her eighteen years as a teacher; and

Whereas, by earning National Board Certification, Theresa Long has demonstrated that her teaching practices measure up against the highest and most rigorous national standards; and

Whereas, Rockwood R-VI School District is made up of eighteen elementary schools, six middle schools, and four high schools; utilizes the knowledge, skills, and training of nearly sixteen hundred certificated staffers; and prepares nearly twenty-two thousand students for their future roles as productive citizens and community leaders:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the strong educational career of Theresa Long and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes upon her receipt of prestigious National Board Certification in her area of teaching specialization; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of National Board certified teacher Theresa Long of Eureka High School in the Rockwood R-VI School District.
