

House Resolution No. 840

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exceptionally committed to their hometowns and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Barbara Stinson of Waynesville has attained considerable distinction as City Clerk for the City of Waynesville during the past seventeen years; and

Whereas, Barbara Stinson will enhance her already impressive record of achievements on March 19, 2003, when she will experience the honor and the privilege of being installed as State President of the Missouri City Clerks and Finance Officers Association during its Spring Institute in Columbia; and

Whereas, in addition to her productive participation and membership in the Missouri City Clerks and Finance Officers Association, Barbara Stinson is an esteemed member of the Central Division of the City Clerks Association; and

Whereas, Barbara Stinson has served as Secretary/Treasurer of the Annual Frog Fest for six years; and

Whereas, despite her extremely busy schedule as Waynesville City Clerk and her leadership duties with state organizations, Barbara Stinson finds the time to enjoy the highly practical domestic arts of quilting and sewing; and

Whereas, born in Maryland on November 9, 1947, Barbara Stinson has been blessed with the love and affection of two children, Robert Eaton and Brian Stinson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Barbara Stinson for the top leadership post in the Missouri City Clerks and Finance Officers Association and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued success now and in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of new State President Barbara Stinson of the Missouri City Clerks and Finance Officers Association.
