

House Resolution No. 1292

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Jonathan F. Kaiser of Troop 725 in St. Louis, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held April 13, 2003, at the Affton White Rodgers Community Center; and

Whereas, Jonathan Kaiser earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved a landscaping project and the installation of four butterfly houses at the White Rodgers Community Center; and

Whereas, during his eleven years in the Scouting program, Jonathan Kaiser earned an impressive thirty-one merit badges, received the Ad Altare Dei and 2003 Arrowman of the Year awards, attained membership in the Order of the Arrow, and participated in six years of summer camp at the S-F Scout Camp and six Camporees; and

Whereas, Jonathan Kaiser has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Patrol Leader, Quartermaster, Scribe, and Order of the Arrow Representative for three years; and

Whereas, Jonathan Kaiser is an exemplary student who excels in his studies, is courteous to his teachers and fellow classmates, and does his best to live each day by the high standards and ideals of Scouting; and

Whereas, Jonathan Kaiser has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Joseph and Linda Kaiser of St. Louis:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jonathan Kaiser at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Jonathan Kaiser.
