

House Resolution No. 1741

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are fully aware of the important role that Catholic education in the State of Missouri has played in the development of countless Missouri youth; and

Whereas, Glenn Young, an esteemed resident of Independence, Missouri, has wholeheartedly dedicated himself to the goals and ideals of Catholic education for thirty-one years as a teacher at St. Mary's High School in Independence; and

Whereas, throughout his impressive tenure as a Social Studies Teacher, Glenn Young has distinguished himself as a mentor and friend to many at St. Mary's High School and has greatly enjoyed watching as his students have grown to become successful, productive adults; and

Whereas, selected as the 1999 Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year, Glenn Young graduated from Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg and went on to receive his Master's degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City; and

Whereas, Glenn Young considers himself most fortunate for the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include his devoted wife, Dawn Young; his three children, Jason, Glenn Jr., and Dionne; and his two granddaughters, Francesca and Sophia; and

Whereas, Glenn Young is a favorite among students and colleagues alike at St. Mary's High School, where he continues to provide students with the basic fundamentals of a good, quality Catholic education that will more than adequately prepare them for the academic and social challenges they will face in the years to come:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Glenn Young as he proudly celebrates thirty-one years of unparalleled service to St. Mary's High School and to Catholic education, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to touch the hearts and minds of Missouri youngsters as an outstanding Catholic educator; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Glenn Young of Independence, Missouri.
