

House Resolution No. 2029

Whereas, as the 2002-2003 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Hillsboro R-III School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty in June 2003 with the retirement of Carol Ann Hermann Hagan who has devoted many years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a teacher; and

Whereas, Carol Hagan has taught for twenty-five years at Hillsboro R-III, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, currently an English teacher at Hillsboro High School, Carol Hagan has also taught junior high school English and served as the English Department Chair at Hillsboro R-III; taught speech and drama, coached speech and drama, and directed plays and variety shows at Crystal City High School; taught third grade at Our Lady School; and taught English, coached speech and drama, directed plays, and sponsored the sophomore class at St. Vincent's High School; and

Whereas, named Jefferson County National Education Association's Teacher of the Year in 1998, Carol Hagan is a member of the Missouri National Education Association who has served in numerous capacities with the National Education Association and the Hillsboro National Education Association, a few of which include Jefferson County NEA Teacher Advocate, Hillsboro NEA President, Chair and member of several HNEA Committees, and a member of the Newsletter Staff; and

Whereas, Carol Hagan has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Harold H. Hagan, Jr.; one son, Michael J. Hagan; and one daughter, Michelle C. Hagan:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the Hillsboro R-III School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Carol Hagan has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement which she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Carol Ann Hermann Hagan, as a measure of our esteem for her.
