

House Resolution No. 1780

Whereas, it is always a moment of great pride when the members of the Missouri House of Representatives have the opportunity to applaud the achievements of a young citizen who has excelled through commitment to the highest standards of excellence; and

Whereas, Blake Daniel Barks, a student at Central High School in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, has distinguished himself by successfully meeting all of the stringent requirements for induction into the prestigious National Honor Society (NHS); and

Whereas, Blake Daniel Barks has been chosen for membership in the National Honor Society chapter at Central High School, through which distinction he will join a select roster of outstanding students; and

Whereas, founded in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), the National Honor Society is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students; and

Whereas, the National Honor Society serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character, all of which have been associated with membership in the organization since its inception eight decades ago; and

Whereas, Blake Daniel Barks has put forth tremendous effort during his high school years in an earnest endeavor to enrich his life and the lives of others by adhering to the strict principles and rigorous guidelines which have formed the foundation of an elite society designed to encourage and reward responsible citizenship in its truest form; and

Whereas, America looks to a bright and promising future because of the many goals already attained by such remarkable young Missourians as Blake Daniel Barks:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending hearty congratulations to Blake Daniel Barks at this proud milestone of well-deserved distinction and in wishing him continued great success as he seeks new avenues of challenge in the years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Blake Daniel Barks, as a measure of our esteem for him.
