

House Resolution No. 2028

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have so generously provided diverse learning opportunities to their young charges in preparation for future roles as societal leaders; and

Whereas, Gayle E. Quinton of Festus, Missouri, has attained distinction as a high school English and physical education teacher in the Hillsboro R-III School District; and

Whereas, a teacher for almost thirty years, Gayle Quinton will bring her highly effective endeavors to a close on July 1, 2003, in order to shift the focus of her attention to those activities appropriate for her newfound status as a retiree; and

Whereas, Gayle Quinton has admirably enmeshed herself in curricular and extracurricular programs at Hillsboro High School, including service as a C.A.R.E. Team member, Junior Class sponsor, and Ski Club sponsor; and

Whereas, in a successful quest to ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance in her own classes in particular and in the field of education in general, Gayle Quinton has been an active participant in the Missouri State Teachers Association, for which she has served as Treasurer; and

Whereas, Gayle Quinton down through the years has enjoyed unquestioning support and encouragement from her beloved husband, Larry D. Quinton, and her daughter, Lindsay K. Quinton, for all of her professional pursuits; and

Whereas, once the 2002-2003 school year has drawn to a suitable conclusion, Gayle Quinton will be able to look back on her time at Hillsboro High School and glean innumerable fond memories from her experiences there:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exemplary career so skillfully conducted by Gayle Quinton during nearly three decades with the Hillsboro R-III School District and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Gayle E. Quinton of Festus, Missouri.
