

House Resolution No. 1987

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have made innumerable contributions to their local communities and neighborhoods down through the years; and

Whereas, Frances Hyman of Fulton, Missouri, has attained distinction during the past fifty years for her endeavors as a wife, mother, volunteer, entrepreneur, and secretary; and

Whereas, a member of the Fulton Chapter of the American Business Women's Association, Frances Hyman has been selected by that prestigious organization for honor as 2003 Woman of the Year; and

Whereas, since joining the American Business Women's Association in September 1981, Frances Hyman has served twice as Chapter Corresponding Secretary, twice as Chapter Treasurer, thrice as Chair of the Membership Committee, twice as a member of the Bulletin Committee, and twice as Co-Chair of the Ways & Means Fall Nut Sales; and

Whereas, Frances Hyman has been very instrumental in helping the Kingdom of Callaway Chapter of the American Business Women's Association enjoy extraordinary success in fund-raising and has striven for perfection in all of her leadership roles; and

Whereas, in addition to her stellar labors with the American Business Women's Association, Frances Hyman has developed and maintained an excellent reputation for her activities as a bowler with the Fulton Women's Bowling League and as a bowling instructor for children, member of the Fulton VFW Ladies Auxiliary and Callaway Community Hospital Auxiliary, Red Cross Bloodmobile volunteer, and devout church member; and

Whereas, a Fulton High School graduate who worked as a Medical Secretary at Fulton State Hospital for thirty years, Frances Hyman reflects upon the good times she shared with her husband, the late Harold Hyman, and takes pride in the achievements of her daughter and son-in-law, Barbie and Scott Ready of Greenville, South Carolina, and her two grandchildren, Meghan and Caleb:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exceptional accomplishments garnered by Frances Hyman in her personal and professional life and during her career years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes upon her selection as the 2003 Woman of the Year by the Kingdom of Callaway Chapter of the American Business Women's Association; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Frances Hyman of Fulton, Missouri.
