

House Resolution No. 2367

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has brought great commitment and steadfast dedication to state government; and

Whereas, Charles J. Marino, an esteemed resident of St. Louis, Missouri, will officially retire from the Missouri Department of Revenue, Division of Taxation and Collection, Customer Assistance on April 30, 2003, after a successful career that has spanned more than twenty-three years; and

Whereas, Charles Marino has contributed greatly to the success and function of the Missouri Department of Revenue through the important roles he has played as Auditor, Revenue Agent II, Custodian of Records, Supervisor, and Taxpayer Services Representative II, the position he currently holds; and

Whereas, prior to signing on with the Missouri Department of Revenue, Charles Marino completed the many duties and tasks placed before him as a member of the faculty and staff at Saint Louis University, Director of Human Relations at Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and Executive Director Assistant to Health and Services of St. Louis for the City of St. Louis for a collective total of thirty years; and

Whereas, Charles Marino is exceedingly proud of his affiliation with such important organizations as the Urban League, EEOC St. Louis, Civil Service Commission, Human Rights Commission, American Bar Association, Federal Mediation and Consultation Service, National Arbitration Forum, National Mediation Service, and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America; and

Whereas, Charles Marino looks forward to his much-deserved retirement so that he can spend more quality time with his devoted wife, Laura, and his son, Charles, Jr.; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Charles Marino, a remarkable individual and stellar state employee who will be greatly missed by all those who had the distinct pleasure of knowing and working with him:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Charles Marino for his twenty-three and one-half years of unparalleled service to the Missouri Department of Revenue and to the citizenry of the Show-Me State, and in wishing him the long, enjoyable retirement he so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Charles J. Marino.
