

House Resolution No. 2350

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself as a leader of his community; and

Whereas, Kevin Carroll, an esteemed resident of Cameron, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Youth Volunteer of the Year award during a festive "Thank You" Banquet sponsored by the Cameron Community Betterment Committee to be held May 3, 2003; and

Whereas, a Special Olympics volunteer for the past three years, Kevin Carroll has willingly taken one week from his summer vacation to counsel mentally handicapped adults at Camp Rainbow for the past two years; and

Whereas, Kevin Carroll is an exceptional student at his school where he excels in his studies and participates in such extracurricular activities as the Student Council Community Service Committee and the Ecology Club, which participated in clean-up efforts at Wallace State Park; and

Whereas, a YMCA Youth Leader, Kevin Carroll has served as a youth leader at his church throughout his impressive high school career; and

Whereas, Kevin Carroll derives a tremendous amount of personal satisfaction from tutoring a fourth-grade student and working on the Goblin Run, a YMCA project for children in Grades 1-6; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Kevin Carroll, a remarkable young man whose dedication to his community continues to serve as an inspiration to all those who know him:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Kevin Carroll at this proud moment of well-deserved recognition, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Youth Volunteer of the Year, Kevin Carroll.
