

House Resolution No. 2455

Whereas, as the 2002-2003 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Marshfield R-I School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty on May 29, 2003, with the retirement of Agena Robinson who has devoted more than a quarter century of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an elementary school teacher; and

Whereas, Agena Robinson has taught for twenty-two years at Marshfield R-I, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Agena Robinson has touched the lives of countless youngsters by helping them form a solid educational foundation upon which to build in the future; and

Whereas, Agena Robinson has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, so many young Missourians have left the classrooms of Marshfield R-I fully prepared to face the challenges ahead as a result of the outstanding professional endeavors of Agena Robinson; and

Whereas, Agena Robinson has been blessed with the love and affection of a wonderful family that includes her husband, Dr. Dennis Robinson, who has proudly supported her long and illustrious career:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the Marshfield R-I School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Agena Robinson has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Agena Robinson, as a measure of our esteem for her.
