

House Resolution No. 2592

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Chandra Anderson of Kidder, Missouri, placed Third in her category in the 2003 Missouri Law Day Essay Contest, which is sponsored by The Missouri Bar Young Lawyers Section, the Missouri National Education Association, and the Missouri Press Association; and

Whereas, Chandra Anderson is an Eighth Grade student at Hamilton Middle School where she excels in her studies and works hard to make the grades necessary for selection to the Honor Roll; and

Whereas, few middle school students possess the athletic skill and stamina of Chandra Anderson, who is a star on both the Softball and Basketball teams; and

Whereas, Chandra Anderson is the fourth student from Hamilton Middle School to win a Law Day Essay Contest in five years; and

Whereas, Chandra will be honored during The Missouri Bar Spring Committee Luncheon on May 9, 2003, at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City, where she will be presented with a United States Savings Bond and a plaque commemorating her achievement; and

Whereas, Chandra Anderson has achieved all of this and more with the love and admiration of her proud parents, Tammy Grossman and Mark Anderson, both of Kidder:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Chandra Anderson for taking Third Place in her category in the 2003 Missouri Law Day Essay Contest, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Chandra Anderson, as a mark of our esteem for her.
