

House Resolution No. 2551

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated themselves to helping youth meet their educational needs as future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Greg Johnson of Blue Springs, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a seventh-grade social studies teacher at Moreland Ridge Middle School in the Blue Springs R-IV School District; and

Whereas, Greg Johnson has enhanced his already stellar record of achievement through his nomination and selection for Teacher of the Year accolades; and

Whereas, an impressive teacher from a family of educators, Greg Johnson is the beloved husband of Jenny Johnson who currently teaches art at Moreland Ridge Middle School and earlier received Building Teacher of the Year at Cordill-Mason Elementary School two years ago; and

Whereas, Greg Johnson is justifiably proud to be known as the loving son of Andrea Johnson who has been teaching in the Blue Springs School District since 1971 and was named Building Teacher of the Year last year at William Bryant Elementary School where she currently teaches first-graders; and

Whereas, Greg Johnson was publically praised at a Friday morning reception for the educational accomplishments which led to his receipt of the district-wide Teacher of the Year Award; and

Whereas, the Blue Springs R-IV School District educates nearly thirteen thousand students at twenty-one facilities through the unparalleled, highly effective efforts of nearly nine hundred certificated personnel:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Greg Johnson as Teacher of the Year for the Blue Springs School District and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Greg Johnson of Blue Springs, Missouri.
