

House Resolution No. 2820

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has brought great commitment and steadfast dedication to the teaching profession; and

Whereas, Teresa Hunt, an esteemed resident of Lee's Summit, Missouri, will officially retire from the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District in July of 2003, after a successful career in education that has spanned an incredible thirty years; and

Whereas, Teresa Hunt has played an integral role in the educational development of countless youngsters as a Music Teacher at Peculiar Elementary School, where she has worked diligently to teach her students the basic fundamentals of music and help them develop a deeper appreciation of music in their daily lives; and

Whereas, throughout her impressive tenure with the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District, Teresa Hunt has greatly enjoyed watching as her students have grown to become successful, prosperous adults; and

Whereas, Teresa Hunt firmly believes that a quality education is necessary for success in today's society and has continually worked to provide her students with the skills and knowledge upon which they will build throughout their academic careers; and

Whereas, a member of the Raymore-Peculiar PTA and the Music Educators National Conference who received the 1988 Raymore-Peculiar Teacher of the Month award, Teresa Hunt looks forward to her much-deserved retirement so that she can have more free time for cross-stitching, playing in the bell choir, and enjoying the company of her devoted husband, Terry, and daughter, Amy; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Teresa Hunt, a remarkable individual and stellar educator who will be greatly missed by all those who had the distinct pleasure of knowing and working with her:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Teresa Hunt for her thirty years of unparalleled service to the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District and to the teaching profession, and in wishing her the long, rewarding, and enjoyable retirement she so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Teresa Hunt.
