

House Resolution No. 2863

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognized Tracy Turner, Angie Mills, Brandon Reinert, and Jason Kenning, all students at Pattonville High School, who have each graciously donated a piece of original artwork to be displayed during House Education Committee meetings; and

Whereas, these students have each used their time and talents to create a poster illustrating the motto of the House Education Committee "Focused on Student Success for All" in order to help remind the committee members as they vote that their most important priority is to ensure the best educational opportunities for all students in the state; and

Whereas, Marta Bethune, the art teacher at Pattonville High School, organized the effort to provide the House Education Committee with original student artwork and guided the students as they developed their creative posters; and

Whereas, Pattonville School District continually strives for excellence in education, placing the achievements of its students first and foremost; and

Whereas, under the able leadership of the Board of Education and Superintendent, Dr. Hugh Kinney, Pattonville has twice been a recipient of Missouri's Distinction in Performance Award for having met 13 out of 13 standards related to academic performance, such as MAP test scores, reading achievement, drop-out rate, attendance and student participation in advanced courses, as shown on the district's Annual Performance Report issued by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our most sincere thanks to Tracy Turner, Angie Mills, Brandon Reinert, and Jason Kenning for donating their original pieces of artwork to be displayed at House Education Committee Meetings; to their art teacher, Marta Bethune, who helped organize this project; and to Pattonville School District for continually striving for excellence in education; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Pattonville School District.
