

House Resolution No. 2958

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge a milestone event in the life of a young Show-Me State resident who is admirably preparing for her future role as a societal leader through her exemplary commitment to educational studies; and

Whereas, Jody M. Farnsworth of St. Charles, Missouri, is the 2003 winning essayist in the annual St. Charles Pachyderm Scholarship contest; and

Whereas, for her efforts in expounding on the topic, "Is the Judicial Branch of the Federal Government Re-writing Our Laws?", Jody Farnsworth will receive a $500 scholarship for future use at the college of her choice; and

Whereas, Jody Farnsworth is an active participant in the activities and opportunities of the St. Charles Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, where she is universally hailed as a wonderful young lady with strong determination and a drive to succeed; and

Whereas, class president of Laurel Girls for the past two years and member of an activities committee, Jody Farnsworth has been in charge of such projects as the youth leadership retreat, girls camp, and Sunday youth correlation meetings; and

Whereas, Jody Farnsworth is completing the final requirements for a special medallion given by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to young women who complete seven value projects, an endeavor for which she is scheduled to receive her award in May 2003; and

Whereas, Jody Farnsworth has developed and maintained an excellent reputation as a good student who studies hard, completes tasks on time, and should serve as an outstanding citizen in her college and adult years:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jody Farnsworth to be the recipient of the St. Charles Pachyderm Scholarship and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jody M. Farnsworth of St. Charles, Missouri.
