

House Resolution No. 3024

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Lacy Moore of Fairfax, Missouri, has been elected to serve as the First Vice President for Region I of the Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), a nine-county area in northwest Missouri; and

Whereas, in her role as a regional officer, Lacy Moore will serve on the regional executive council, plan and orchestrate the regional meeting, and oversee the planning and organization of STAR Events contests for 2004; and

Whereas, Lacy Moore is an exemplary student at Fairfax R-III High School where she excels in her studies and participates in a wide variety of extracurricular activities including the National Honor Society and the 4-H Club; and

Whereas, an Honor Student who was selected to the Flag Corp, Lacy Moore has won top academic awards and competed in state FCCLA contests including the contest for the chapter showcase display; and

Whereas, elected President of the Fairfax R-III FCCLA Chapter, Lacy Moore has served in the position of Regional Officer once before; and

Whereas, Lacy Moore is an invaluable member of the Fairfax community who was active in a clean-up project on the grounds of Fairfax R-III High School through the 4-H Club, and a blood drive through the National Honor Society; and

Whereas, Lacy has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of her wonderful family which includes her proud parents, Harold Moore and the late Jeanne Moore; and her brother, Luke Moore; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Lacy Moore, a remarkable young woman and exceptional student who is certain to succeed in whatever path she chooses to take following her graduation from high school:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Lacy Moore at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Lacy Moore, as a mark of our esteem for her.
