

House Resolution No. 2987

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have developed and maintained exemplary reputations for the excellence of their endeavors; and

Whereas, Kara Carr has attained distinction as a third- and fourth-grade teacher, assistant softball coach, AmeriCorps Director, and former bus driver for the Republic R-III School District; and

Whereas, as her last year in the Republic School District draws to a close, Kara Carr has received the distinct pleasure of being named the Missouri Business and Professional Women's Young Careerist by a panel of judges in Festus; and

Whereas, in her role as the Missouri Young Careerist, Kara Carr will serve as the Missouri Business and Professional Women's state representative at the national level of competition which will take place in July 2003 in Cleveland, Ohio; and

Whereas, upon her return to Missouri, Kara Carr will shift the focus of her daily endeavors in preparation for her new job as the Reeds Springs R-IV School District kindergarten and first-grade Principal; and

Whereas, Kara Carr has prepared for her stellar educational career by pursuing the knowledge and experiences necessary to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education, Master of Science degree in educational administration, and Specialist degree in educational administration from Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield and a Doctorate from the University of Arkansas; and

Whereas, a participant in numerous professional organizations, Kara Carr previously received the Hazel Rogers' Student Teacher of the Year honorable mention award and nomination for the Sallie Mae First Class Teacher Award:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Kara Carr as the Missouri Business and Professional Women's Young Careerist for the state of Missouri and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes as she continues to compete at the national summit; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Kara Carr of Republic, Missouri.
