

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youth who have risen to the top echelon of academic performance while studying at the secondary level of education; and

Whereas, Andrew Moreton has attained distinction for his selection as Salutatorian for the Class of 2003 at Cape Girardeau Central High School where he has put forth the considerable effort necessary during the course of the past four years to earn the second highest overall grade point average among his peers; and

Whereas, the illustrious son of John and Nancy Moreton, Andrew Moreton garnered a wealth of experience and knowledge through his esteemed participation in Student Senate, Swim Team, Cross Country, Lacrosse, Beta Club, National Honor Society, and Letterman's Club activities; and

Whereas, Andrew Moreton has been active in his community through volunteer efforts with the Salvation Army and service as a Postponing Sexual Involvement mentor for junior high students; and

Whereas, Andrew Moreton will pursue engineering and business studies at Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, where he will be known as a President's Scholar; and

Whereas, Cape Girardeau Central High School has an enrollment of more than thirteen hundred ninth-through-twelfth graders who are challenged and encouraged academically by eighty-one teachers and other staffers; and

Whereas, the Cape Girardeau School District in southeast Missouri educates nearly four thousand students through the expertise of more than three hundred certificated staff at six elementary, one middle, and one high school facility:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the excellent academic and extra-curricular accomplishments of Andrew Moreton during his years at Cape Girardeau Central High School and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon his earning Salutatorian status and our best wishes for continued educational and personal achievement in the years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for 2003 Class Salutatorian Andrew Moreton of Cape Girardeau Central High School.
