

HB 198 -- Arrest Without Warrant

Co-Sponsors: Stevenson, Wilson (130), Smith (14), Ruestman,
Bough, Moore, Bruns, Dixon

This bill allows police to detain a person for 30 hours without charging the person with a crime, when the person is arrested without a warrant. Current law allows police to detain a person for 20 or 24 hours, depending on the offense for which they are arrested.
