

HB 468 -- Unlawful Discriminatory Practices

Co-Sponsors: Byrd, Hanaway, Wright, Pratt, Jetton, Ruestman,
Yates

This bill limits the total damages (actual and punitive) that a plaintiff in an unlawful discriminatory action filed pursuant to Chapter 213, RSMo, (Human Rights) may be awarded, depending upon the number of employees of the respondent. The bill also allows either party to demand a trial by jury.