Whereas, the beloved daughter of George W. and Ellen Tullock Seabourne, Pearl Dickey came into this world on August 26, 1902; and

Dickey O'Neal, Larry W. Dickey, and Elmo S. Dickey, now deceased; ten grandchildren; and fourteen great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, Pearl Dickey prepared for her endeavors in life by studiously devoting herself to college-level educational opportunities in Cape Girardeau and at Mineral Area College; and

Whereas, Pearl Dickey garnered a wonderful reputation for her service down through the years as a teacher and as a farmer's wife, vocations from which she eventually retired after immeasurable contributions of time and energy on behalf of others; and

Whereas, a member of Eastern Star since 1926, Pearl Dickey received a rare and much-coveted Seventy-Five Year Pin from that esteemed organization in 2001; and

Whereas, at the time of her death, Pearl Dickey was a member of the United Methodist Church of Belgrade, Missouri; and
