

House Resolution No. 4139

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State families which serve as role models for others due to their pursuit of excellence in all of their chosen endeavors; and

Whereas, the Brian and Patricia Bogue family of Holt has attained considerable achievement during the past few years in light of its success in the field of agriculture; and

Whereas, on Thursday, September 25, 2003, the Brian and Patricia Bogue family will add to its record of attainment when it accepts recognition as the 2003 Clay County Farm Family of the Year during an awards ceremony which will be held at the Liberty Community Center; and

Whereas, Brian and Patricia Bogue prepared for their professional endeavors through diligent studies which led to their graduation from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1992; and

Whereas, the loving parents of eight-year-old Nicholas and three-year-old Katelyn, Brian and Patricia Bogue having admirably provided for their growing family's needs, and many of its desires, with Brian running their farm operation while Patricia adds financial stability through her employment at the Clay County branch of the Mid-Continent Library; and

Whereas, Brian and Patricia round out their civic- and family-oriented activities through participation in the Cub Scouts of Kearney, Community of Christ Church, and Clay County Soil and Water Conservation organization; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pause to acknowledge those Missourians such as Brian and Patricia Bogue who are engaged in the rigorous and demanding toil necessary to meet society's need for food production:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of the Brian and Patricia Bogue family as the 2003 Clay County Farm Family of the Year, to convey to them this legislative body's heartiest congratulations as they receive public accolades on September 25, 2003, at the Liberty Community Center, and to express our best wishes for continued success long into the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Brian and Patricia Bogue family of Holt, Missouri.
