

House Resolution No. 137

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself through service to his community; and

Whereas, Floyd Gilzow, an esteemed resident of Walnut Shade, Missouri, is to be commended for the excellent job he did performing his duties as Chairman of the Joint Commission on the Poultry Industry of Missouri, which was dissolved December 31, 2003; and

Whereas, the mission of the Poultry Industry Commission was to improve the quality of life, secure the future of the environment, enhance business and industry opportunities, and to help empower Missouri communities by bringing together a coalition of public and private resources; and

Whereas, the poultry industry is a vital, profitable, and important industry in the state of Missouri, for which the Poultry Industry Commission was established; and

Whereas, the Poultry Industry Commission reviewed and evaluated both the economic impact of the poultry industry, waste disposal issues, and environmental impacts on the industry, and made recommendations on the further action or legislative remedies, if any, to be taken as necessary; and

Whereas, composed of twenty-three members, the Poultry Industry Commission was provided funding, administrative support, and staff by the Office of Administration; and

Whereas, the Executive Director of the Upper White River Basin Foundation, Floyd Gilzow is a dedicated public servant whose unwavering commitment and steadfast dedication to the Poultry Industry Commission earned him the praise and respect of all those who had the distinct pleasure of knowing and working with him:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Floyd Gilzow for his unparalleled service to the Poultry Industry Commission and to the citizenry of the Show-Me State, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Floyd Gilzow.
