

House Resolution No. 119

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary Missouri couple whose love for one another has been steadfast throughout their wedded union; and

Whereas, Sam and Rose Murabito, treasured residents of Lake Timberline, Missouri, will have a benefit in their honor sponsored by the Paddle Club to be held January 17, 2004, in Lake Timberline; and

Whereas, the benefit will include good food and great music provided by Janie Bock and members of Rodeo Drive who include Russ Mcdermot, Ron Harms, Mark Williamson, Allen Grey, and Pat Turpin; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband who established the "Murabito Ball Team" as a young man in Cahokia, Mr. Murabito dutifully served his country in the United States Army from 1967 to 1970 and went on to provide a safe and secure future for his loved ones as a stellar employee of Bi-State for twenty-seven years, while somehow finding the time and energy for affiliation with the American Legion Post 784 "over 30 baseball"; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Mrs. Murabito enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself as a bar manager in the Souldard area of St. Louis prior to her much deserved retirement in 2000, following which she and Sam moved to Lake Timberline; and

Whereas, married in August of 1971, Sam and Rose Murabito have been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of their wonderful son, Dino, an engineer for Mallincrodt; and their beautiful granddaughter, Angelina:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in paying tribute to Sam and Rose Murabito, a remarkable couple whose unwavering commitment to one another, to their faith, and to their family will continue to sustain them through life's most difficult challenges, and in wishing them tremendous peace, hope, and contentment as they continue their journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sam and Rose Murabito, as a mark of our great esteem for them.
