Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have developed and maintained exceptional reputations in light of the excellence of their many endeavors; and

Whereas, Albert C. Niewoehner has attained considerable distinction as a fifty-year member of NECA IBEW, for which he was truly instrumental in the development of safety and fire awareness and also served on the Board; and

Whereas, Albert Niewoehner closed another chapter in his long history as a union promoter on January 2, 2004, when he retired from his important work as Project Manager for Sachs Electric; and

Whereas, Albert Niewoehner brought to his labors at Sachs Electric a wealth of knowledge and experience which he had gained from his work for more than nine years as the Superintendent of the electrical shop at Anheuser Busch and from his Industrial Management and Electrical Engineering studies at Washington University, where he graduated with high honors; and

Whereas, Albert Niewoehner also deserves recognition of his volunteer efforts with the Food Pantry, Saint Patrick's Center, Boy Scouts of America, Saint Vincent's Society, and Saints Peter and Paul Society; his ability as a baseball and soccer coach; his support of Fenton Soccer Field development; and his assistance in the renovation of many churches throughout the city of Saint Louis; and
