

House Resolution No. 161

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have demonstrated their true value as citizens through the excellence of their diverse pursuits; and

Whereas, Hayden Ambrose will be a guest of honor at the inaugural Pillar of the Community award banquet which will be sponsored by the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce and held on Saturday, January 24, 2004, at the Grain Valley Community Center; and

Whereas, an active member of the Grain Valley community since 1993, Hayden Ambrose became the employer of eight electricians at A&A Electrical after first serving in the United States Air Force as a Sergeant and then attaining Master Electrician certification; and

Whereas, a lifetime member of The National Registry of Who's Who since the 2000 edition, Hayden Ambrose has donated a considerable amount of time and energy to the local school district by installing the electrical wiring for the new high school concession stand and baseball field scoreboard; and

Whereas, Hayden Ambrose served as an Executive Board member of the Chamber of Commerce from 1995 to 2002, Chamber of Commerce liaison for the Board of Boards in 1997, and Chairperson of the Chamber's Halloween Hayride from 1997 to 1999; and

Whereas, Hayden Ambrose is a member of the Construction Board of Appeals, Planning and Zoning Commissioner, and member of the Grain Valley Fair Association whose work with Aquila brought power to city poles for Christmas wreath lights and to the old high school track area for Fair Daze events; and

Whereas, the husband of Lesli for eighteen years, Hayden Ambrose is also very proud of his special role as the beloved father of two daughters, Stefanie and Kelli, who attend school in Grain Valley:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar, civic-minded activities engaged in by Hayden Ambrose down through the years and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon his well-deserved selection for a Pillar of the Community Award by the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce and our best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Hayden Ambrose.
