

House Resolution No. 199

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself through excellence in education; and

Whereas, Danny Plott of Warrensburg, Missouri, will be honored for achieving National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards during a recognition ceremony to be held January 28, 2004, in the Rotunda of the Missouri State Capitol; and

Whereas, to achieve National Board Certification, Danny Plott volunteered to participate in a lengthy and rigorous assessment which can take up to three years to complete; and

Whereas, Danny Plott has played an integral role in the educational development of hundreds of young people as an American history teacher at Warrensburg High School in the Warrensburg R-IV School District; and

Whereas, Danny Plott is exceedingly proud of the achievements he has realized as a counselor with the Missouri Boys State program, facilitator for Senior Ethics Day at Warrensburg High School, and member of the Missouri State High School Activities Association Advisory Board for Track and Field; and

Whereas, a 2002 graduate of the Teachers Academy, Danny Plott has compiled an enviable list of service to such important organizations as the Missouri State Teachers Association, the Warrensburg Teachers Association, and the Missouri Track and Cross Country Coaches Association; and

Whereas, the 2000 Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year, Danny Plott has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of his wonderful wife, Kelly:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Danny Plott at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Danny Plott.
