

House Resolution No. 217

Whereas, Phyllis Rae Pasley of Maryland Heights, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as Vocal/General Music Coordinator and Music Specialist in the Pattonville School District; and

Whereas, Phyllis Pasley will enhance her already impressive record of achievements on Wednesday, January 28, 2004, when she is publicly recognized in the Capitol Rotunda by the Missouri NBPTS Network for her National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, to attain National Board Certification, Phyllis Pasley presented evidence of her teaching effectiveness, examples of teaching practices which result in an accompanying increase in student learning, models of meaningful interaction with parents to impact student learning, documents supporting such appropriate teaching strategies, and timed assessments to prove superior levels of content knowledge; and

Whereas, Nationally Board Certified in Early Childhood Music, Phyllis Pasley conducts the Willow Brook Singers in St. Louis, facilitates the school improvement team, works closely with parents on a variety of school initiatives and events, and serves as a clinician, adjudicator, composer, and choral musician; and

Whereas, a member of the Windswept Summer Music Workshop faculty since 1998 and the St. Louis Chamber Chorus since 1987, Phyllis Pasley has also served as Secretary of the Cultural Arts Commission for the city of Maryland Heights, Board member for the Creative Motion Alliance, and Chair of the Marketing Committee; and

Whereas, Phyllis Pasley has been blessed with the love and affection of a wonderful husband, Tom Pasley, who has proudly supported her many successful endeavors:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the educational accomplishments garnered by teacher Phyllis Pasley down through the years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon her completion of National Board Certification through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and our wishes for continued success as a respected employee of the Pattonville School District; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Phyllis Rae Pasley, as a measure of our esteem for her.
