

House Resolution No. 254

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri college professor who has distinguished herself through achievement as a student mentor and community leader; and

Whereas, Amy Hartman, a member of the faculty at East Central College in Union, Missouri, is to be commended for the significant contributions she has made as the Advisor to the East Central Student Senate; and

Whereas, the Student Senate has continually displayed its unwavering commitment and steadfast dedication to the success of East Central College through the numerous decisions it has made that have positively effected its student body; and

Whereas, the Student Senate put forth a tremendous amount of effort in its creation of a Senate Lounge, a haven where students can gather, relax, and have fun when time in their busy schedules permits; and

Whereas, Amy Hartman has selflessly dedicated countless hours of time and energy to a variety of causes and initiatives sponsored by the Student Senate which include a blood drive, holiday blanket drive, and other student activities; and

Whereas, the Student Senate could not have achieved such success without the unparalleled guidance and leadership provided by Advisor Amy Hartman, who has continually helped students achieve their full potential:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Amy Hartman at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best as she continues to support the College's student body and the Union community through her tireless work with the East Central College Student Senate; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amy Hartman, as a mark of our esteem for her.
