

House Resolution No. 391

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding group of young Missouri citizens who have distinguished themselves as leaders of their peers; and

Whereas, Jordan Nelp, Corey Lunsford, Chris Crafton, and Sean McClinton, all of DeSoto, Missouri, are to be commended for taking Third Place in the Missouri Council on Economic Education's World Wide Stock Market Game; and

Whereas, these talented young individuals are juniors at DeSoto High School, where they excel in their studies and participate in a wide variety of extracurricular activities that have enriched their lives immeasurably; and

Whereas, Jordan, Corey, Chris, and Sean started out with a portfolio of $100,000, and increased their portfolio to $119,000 in only two weeks; and

Whereas, the students from DeSoto competed against 847 teams in the state, and placed First in the regional competition from a total of 37 teams; and

Whereas, Jordan, Corey, Chris, and Sean have achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of their proud parents, teachers, and friends, all of whom have continually inspired them to realize their full potential; and

Whereas, this exceptional group of young investors will be honored for their Third Place finish during the Renaissance Awards Program to be held February 6, 2004:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Jordan Nelp, Corey Lunsford, Chris Crafton, and Sean McClinton at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing them only the very best of success in all their future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jordan Nelp, Corey Lunsford, Chris Crafton, and Sean McClinton, as a mark of our esteem for them.
