Whereas, Lola Wolfe, a treasured resident of Nodaway Nursing Home in Maryville, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of her One Hundred Fourth Birthday with a special celebration on January 26, 2004; and

Whereas, on January 26, 1900, God brought a special gift to this great nation with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Lola, who would put a twinkle in people's eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, Lola Wolfe made her formal debut in 1900 along with such notable people as jazz cornet and trumpet soloist Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, actress Helen Hayes, and Gone With the Wind author, Margaret Mitchell; and

Whereas, while celebrating her birthday, Lola Wolfe had the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in her life such as growing up with her siblings on a farm in Oklahoma, where she worked in the fields and rode a lead horse; and

Whereas, Lola Wolfe has been an eyewitness to numerous national and international events, many of which are familiar to others only through the pages of history; and

Whereas, Lola Wolfe is extremely grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her wonderful life and attributes her remarkable longevity to perseverance, hard work, and the ability to get along with others:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Lola Wolfe at this significant milestone and in wishing her peace and contentment as she continues to enjoy her golden years; and
