

House Resolution No. 463

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are delighted to honor an outstanding Missourian who has witnessed dramatic changes in America during her magnificent sojourn on this most precious earth; and

Whereas, Helen Scamman of Northview Manor in Tarkio, Missouri, commemorated the truly awe-inspiring occasion of her One Hundred Sixth Birthday on September 25, 2003, with the distinction of having lived in three different centuries and two millenniums; and

Whereas, on September 25, 1897, south of Rockport, God brought a special gift to George and Maggie Fly with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Helen, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, while celebrating her birthday, Helen had the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in her life such as her marriage to James Glenn Scamman; and

Whereas, known as a very generous and loving lady who simply adores children, Helen Scamman enjoyed recognition as the co-founder of a PEO organization; and

Whereas, a devoted wife and exemplary homemaker, Helen Scamman further distinguished herself as an employee of a munitions plant in Tulsa while America's soldiers were fighting overseas; and

Whereas, at the extraordinarily rare and respectable age of 106, Helen Scamman is extremely grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her long and eventful life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Helen Scamman at this very significant milestone and in wishing her peace and contentment as she continues to enjoy her golden years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Helen Scamman, as a measure of our tremendous esteem for her.

Offered by _____ Representative Brad Lager
District No. 4

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 463, adopted February 9, 2004.

_____
Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker