

House Resolution No. 812

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Jennifer Garrison of Parkville, Missouri, who has been selected to attend The University of Missouri Undergraduate Research Day to be held April 20, 2004, at the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, Jennifer Garrison will be among a select group of undergraduates who will display their research experience during a poster session in the Third Floor Rotunda; and

Whereas, Jennifer Garrison's area of expertise is "Improving Education: Teaching and Learning Models for Computer-Aided Instruction"; and

Whereas, Jennifer Garrison researched the interactions of students and instructors and hopes to improve the education received by children and adults through an "Intelligent Tutoring System", which teachers may utilize to supplement their students' educational experiences; and

Whereas, Jennifer Garrison is a junior at the University of Missouri-Columbia where she excels in her studies and is currently majoring in Applied Mathematics/Statistics and Philosophy; and

Whereas, Jennifer Garrison serves as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, and Youth Group volunteer at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, and looks forward to one day obtaining a Master's degree in Pastoral Ministry; and

Whereas, a native of Ashtabula, Ohio, Jennifer Garrison has achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of her proud parents, John Pauler and JoAnn Williams:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jennifer Garrison upon her worthy selection to attend The University of Missouri Undergraduate Research Day, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jennifer Garrison, as a mark of our esteem for her.
