

House Resolution No. 947

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Jaclyn Rohrs of Bolivar, Missouri, will be honored as a Missouri Federation of Republican Women (MFRW) Joanne Breckenridge Legislative Day Scholar during a memorable visit to the Missouri State Capitol on March 9, 2004; and

Whereas, Jaclyn Rohrs was one of nine exceptional students selected by their local MFRW club to attend Legislative Day and to represent the nine legislative districts; and

Whereas, Jaclyn Rohrs is a junior at Bolivar High School where she excels in her studies and is active in the Band, Speech and Debate, Choir, National Honor Society, the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), SADD, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes; and

Whereas, a three-year varsity tennis player, Jaclyn Rohrs has performed at district and state music contests for two years and has also won district FBLA contests, allowing her to compete in the state FBLA event; and

Whereas, Jaclyn Rohrs has been helping with Republican campaigns for as long as she can remember, riding in parades, passing out stickers, putting up signs, and attending many Republican events which include a speech made by President George Bush in Springfield in 2002; and

Whereas, listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, Jaclyn Rohrs has achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of her proud parents, Alvin and Elizabeth Rohrs of Bolivar:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jaclyn Rohrs at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Breckenridge Scholar, Jaclyn Rohrs of Bolivar, Missouri.
